Dear [Redacted]

STAT

Thank you for your offer to transfer certain material to the National Archives and Records Service that you received as information copies from the office of Military Government (Germany). We have the original OMGUS records in our custody and therefore we do not wish to accession another set.

However, if there is no objection by your Agency, we would appreciate obtaining these records on an informal basis since they would be very useful as supplemental reference material in our Modern Military Branch. If you are willing to give us this material please coordinate the matter with Mr. Ray Tagge, of my staff whose telephone number is 724-1068.

We appreciate your offering this material to the National Archives.

Sincerely,

THOMAS W. WADLOW
Director
Records Disposition Division

Dear Mr. Wadlow:

This is to request authority for a direct transfer to the National Archives of a six-volume unclassified listing of German SS officers dated 15 May 1946 and a recently declassified nine-volume set of notebooks containing extracts from and describing the contents of selected microfilm reels of German Foreign Ministry documents captured in World War II. It is our understanding that these microfilm reels are currently held in the National Archives.

In volume, the six listings measure 15 and 1/2 inches and the nine notebooks measure 8 and 1/2 inches for a total of two feet. They are described as follows:

1. A six-volume unclassified list of German SS officers that was compiled from personnel files and cards of officers of the Allgemeine SS, held at the Berlin Documents Center. The listings are dated 15 May 1946.
2. A set of nine black, loose leaf notebooks, dated early 1957, containing individual extracts that describe the contents of selected microfilm reels of German Foreign Ministry documents captured in World War II.

Any further background information needed concerning this request may be directed to me on
